

IS YOUR MAINFRAME MONITOR HOLDING YOU BACK? 5 WAYS TO TELL IF YOUR SOLUTION IS FALLING SHORT AN IBM SYSTEMS MEDIA WEBINAR

In recent years, a belief developed that “a monitor is a monitor” and essentially a commodity item. In contrast to that belief, the right systems management solution can bring quantifiable financial and business benefits. BMC and IBM Systems Media will host an informative webinar on Wednesday, March 20 at 1:00 pm ET discussing ways which you can receive more value from your monitor.

Join Jay Lipovich, Principal Software Consultant at BMC Software, to learn five ways to determine whether your systems management solution is falling short and how the right systems management solution can improve availability and reduce costs. The right intelligent monitor can make your job easier, join the webinar to find out how!

Wednesday, March 20th at 1:00 PM ET
